Hancock County Health Department has announced that the Mobile Chest X-ray bus will be in Bay St. Louis three days, beginning March 8.

held in the di Benedetto Building on the beach.

Mrs. Dan M. Russell Jr. and Father Christian Baker, SVD, were top award winners. Mrs. Russell won the tri-color award for the most outstanding arrangement, and the sweepstake award for members.

Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab was chairman of the event, with Mrs. Ben Hille co-chairman.

The chairman expressed thanks to amateur growers who helped with the show, including Mr. Wright, Dr. W. C. Hava and P. J. Porter Sr., and to exhibitors Mr. Wright, Father Baker, Dr. Emmett Irwin, James L. Chubb, Horace Williams, Lone Pine Nursery and Duralde Chalmers, and to the many others who helped make the show possible.

Committees for the show included Staging, Mrs. Dan Russell Jr., Mrs. H. H. Shattuck and Mrs. Chas. A. Breath Jr.; Entries, Mrs. C. Newton and Mrs. B. Farrelly; Classification, Mrs. W. W. Baltar; Schedule, Mrs. Ben Hille and Mrs. Edwin Heath Jr.; Hospitality, Mrs. Waldo Otis; Scrappbook, Mrs. C. E. Ripple; Posters, Mrs. O. H. Oxenham.

Mrs. Paul Menard of Slidell chose 'Roses, their Cultivation and Care' as her subject when she addressed members of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Frank Kiefer Thursday, Feb. 16.

Following Mrs. Menard's interesting talk, Mrs. Waldo Otis, president, conducted the business meeting.

Tea was served in the dining room of the home from the lovely table centered with red camellias flanked by reed tapers in silver candelabra.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames George Stevenson, Harry Glover, H. M. Keefe, A. P. Smith, Archibald Bruff, Charles Lozano, James Locascio, Frank Kiefer and Miss Ruth Cazeneuve.

Bayou La Croix Well Abandoned

Marshal R. Young has apparently abandoned further drilling operations in the Bayou La Croix well in Sec. 22, Tp. 8, Range 15 West when it reached a depth of 10,900 feet. The structure formation was found to be lacking in possible oil or gas production.

However, in the Baldwin well rapid progress is being made in the drilling. With the heavy steam drilling rig in operation it is understood that drilling is now past the 9,000 foot mark.

Traub, Heitzmann To Vie In Commissioner Runoff Mar. 3

Bay St. Louis voters returned a split decision Saturday that will require a runoff election March 3 for the office of Bay St. Louis Commissioner.

Warren Traub, superintendent of city gas works, and Geo. E. Heitzmann, deputy tax assessor and housing authority head, will vie in the March 3 runoff.

Traub led the field with 552 votes and Heitzmann was runner-up with 465.

Curtis Favre ran third with 106 votes and the two other candidates, Roland Dillmann and T. A. Heitzmann, polled 51 and 39 votes, respectively.

The special election was held to fill the unexpired term of Sylvan J. Ladner, who resigned the city post when he began his term as Hancock County Sheriff Jan. 1.

Winner in the second primary will serve until July, 1957.

CANDIDATES FOR COMMISSIONER MAKE STATEMENTS TO THE VOTERS

THANK YOU!

I am indeed grateful to the voters and people of Bay St. Louis for the wonderful vote and lead you gave me in last Saturday's election.

I led my nearest opponent by 87 votes and lacked only 55 votes being elected in the first primary.

A second primary will be held Saturday, March 3, and I will sincerely appreciate your further vote and influence in my behalf.

From my experience and from my service in your present city government, I believe that I am fully qualified to be your Commissioner and I believe you will be proud you supported me.

Sincerely yours, WARREN TRAUB

Candidate for City Commissioner

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF BAY ST. LOUIS, MISSISSIPPI

I wish to take this means of expressing my sincere thanks to my many friends and to the people who saw fit to vote for me and enable me to be your Candidate in the Second Primary to be held on March 3 to fill the unexpired term of Sylvan J. Ladner for the office of City Commissioner of the City of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

I wish to further express to the people who were unable to vote for me in the First Primary that I hold no ill will or ill feeling for your having done so and sincerely ask you to join and elect me your next City Commissioner of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

I want to assure each and every individual of the City of Bay St. Louis that I will be a friend of the people.

God willing, it is still my desire to be your Public Servant. Respectfully,

GEORGE E. HEITZMANN
Candidate for City Commissioner

Coast Electric Cited For Safety

Coast Electric Power Association has achieved the goal of 100,000 consecutive man-hours without a lost-time accident.

Thursday, Feb. 16 a bar was added to their Rural Electric Cooperative Safety plaque awarded by the Safety Engineering Department of Employers Mutual Liability Insurance Company of Wisconsin.

Presentation of this bar and additional award was made by Larry Meyers, Electric System Specialist of Employers Mutuals, Wausau, Wisconsin, at a dinner given on Thursday evening by Coast Electric at their office building in recognition of this achievement of its employees and honoring guests of the occasion. Accepting the bar on behalf of the Association, its management and employees was H. H. Shattuck, Manager.

Electric's 41 employees had completed 458 days without a lost-time accident.

The safety record established by the drivers of Coast Electric's 14 vehicles also was recognized. Safe Driver Award Certificates and Pins indicating the years each driver had driven without an accident were presented.

Shattuck said that since July 1, 1948, Coast Electric's vehicles had driven 1,751,193 miles with total claims of insurance of only $564.63.

During this 7 1/2 year period vehicles owned and operated by Coast Electric had been involved in three minor accidents with injury occurring in only one.

Meyers complimented the employees and management on their achievement, saying Coast Electric's record ranked with the tops in the nation. After talks by other guests all complimented the individual employees for his or her part in achieving the record.

players Mutual, in addition to Meyers, were E. S. Williamson, Resident Sales Manager, Jackson; Lee Olson, Claim Manager, New Orleans; and Bill Maxey, Resident Safety Engineer, Jackson.

E. H. Stovall and Joe Sewell, Safety Engineers and Instructors in Safety, and Job Training for the State of Mississippi were present, representing Mississippi State College on this occasion. The Mississippi State Highway Patrol was represented by officers William (Bill) Kenny and Fred Curet of Hancock County.

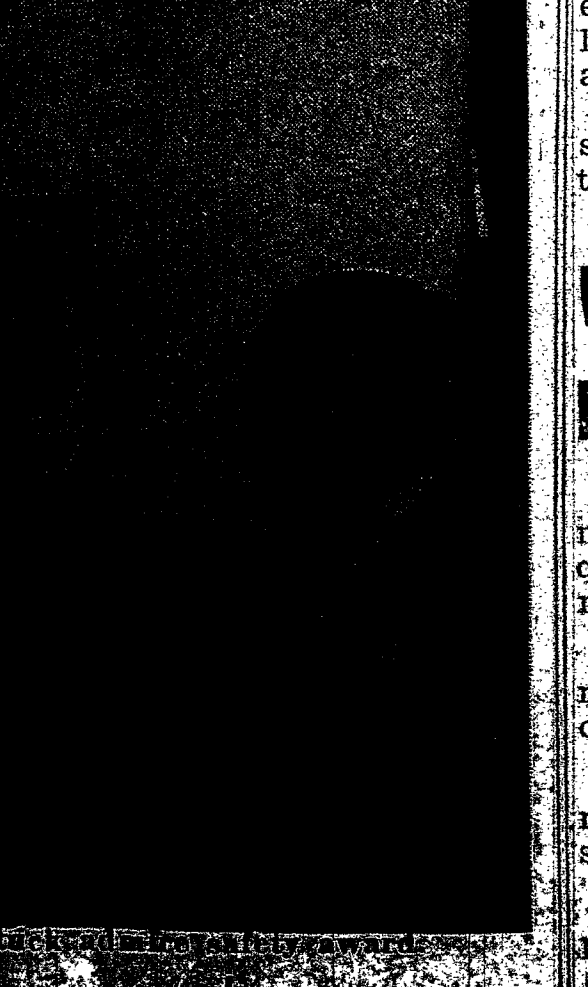

Four directors of the Association, including George Curet, Otto Rester, Fred S. Ladner Sr. and R. P. Turan were present, as well as more than 40 employees of Coast Electric including office, construction and maintenance personnel.

Also among the guests was Gust Kiefer, Manager, Freeport Electric Cooperative, Inc., Onaway, Mich. The evening was one of full entertainment and delicious refreshments, handled by R. A. Scivique of Star Route Farm, Bay St. Louis.

This occasion, marking a second milestone in accomplishment, was highly enjoyable for those present and added to the incentive of Coast Electric and its employees to proceed to higher goals.

Lenten Seafood Shy Say Local Markets

Trout and hardshelled crabs are proving to be the most popular food items during the Lent season, according to local seafood markets.

However, most dealers report a scarcity of most types of seafood. As one fisherman put it, "Seafood seems to hide every Lenten Season. Starting Mardi Gras Day, they sorta wiggle themselves away and don't appear again until Easter Sunday."

Oysters also are on the list of rarities, but so far the demand has been met. Shrimp, the most popular seafood, is reported to be "strictly scarce."

The shrimp season is closed until April 15, a week before Easter Sunday.

PREPARATIONS COMPLETED FOR ANNUAL RED CROSS FUND DRIVE

SEN. LADNER RAPS RECENT SCHOOL LAWS

Senator L. C. Ladner addressed 400 school heads in Jackson last Tuesday at the Robert E. Lee Hotel to protest school laws passed during the 1953 extraordinary session of the State Legislature.

Ladner declared that the state is "no nearer ready for super-consolidation than for integration of its schools."

"Self government in Mississippi is on the downgrade," he said. Future generations will have less opportunity to govern themselves than we do. Unless the people of the state realize that, they are doomed."

"What we need to do," he asserted, "is give the schools back to the people of the state."

Waveland School District Denied

The Education Finance Committee has turned down requests that Waveland schools make up a separate district.

Red Cross workers of the Hancock County Chapter were busy this week laying final plans for the forthcoming appeal for funds to be launched March 1, according to Kenneth Pepperdine, volunteer chairman of this year's fund campaigning.

"We earnestly request the all-out support of the people of Hancock County in helping our chapter meet its quota of $485.00," Pepperdine said.

"There is an unusual need this year due to the enormous expenditures of last year for emergency relief and long-range assistance to the victims of some of the worst disasters in history."

Last year saw three major floods, plus some unusually destructive tornadoes, which victimized four or five times the number of people of an average disaster year, according to national reports.

"We sincerely hope our people will be generous and proud to contribute their part toward our fair share of the $90 million national total required to enable our own chapter to answer the needs of our people here and to help others less fortunate in disaster areas elsewhere."

New Echo Editor

Jim Pfeiffer has been named Editor of The Sea Coast Echo. Pfeiffer, formerly an editor and publisher in Missouri, has for the last four years been employed as a Linotype operator on the Hancock County Eagle.

Mrs. Pfeiffer, formerly a commercial photographer, also has joined the Echo staff.

A new seven and a half-acre cemetery is planned for Bay St. Louis, with work slated to commence some time next week, it was revealed Wednesday.

The plot has been purchased from Dr. A. P. Smith by the Peoples Security Organization of Waycross, Ga., and stretches from Third Street to Railroad Ave., siding Ramoneda Street.

It is said the cemetery will have a monument erected to Veterans of Foreign Wars and will have an American Flag raised each day. The plot is also to have a paved street and sidewalks, it was reported.

It also is planned to hold open air services each Sunday morning, with every faith represented.

According to reports, each lot in the cemetery will contain six graves and will be surrounded by shrubbery.

It also was reported that the cemetery will have a full-time caretaker, and that there will be an office on the grounds.

DISTRICT VFW MEETING SLATED HERE ON FEB. 26

Hancock County Post 3253 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will host a meeting of the First District of Mississippi of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Representatives from Pascagoula, Biloxi, Gulfport, Lucedale, Wiggins, Picayune and Poplarville will be present.

The meeting will be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall at 8 p.m. February 26. Dinner will be served after the meeting.

State, District and District Auxiliary officers and members will attend.

Marcel LaNasa And Bro. Romuald To Give Lectures

Marcel LaNasa

Brother Romuald

Marcel LaNasa and Brother Romuald, SC, directors of music at Bay High School and St. Stanislaus, respectively, will be among the guest lecturers at Pearl River Junior College annual high school band clinic today and Saturday.

Eleven high schools from the district will participate, including Bay High and St. Stanislaus. Tonight an informal dance in the college gymnasium is scheduled and tomorrow at 12:30 the entire clinic will parade through downtown Poplarville. A concert in Moody Hall Auditorium Saturday night will complete the two-day agenda.

A Suggestion

Hancock County, and particularly the people of Bay St. Louis, should be proud of the fill placed there this summer through the cooperation of the City officials of Bay St. Louis, the Board of Supervisors, and the City Parks and Playgrounds Commission.

This fill has added greatly to the protection of the beach road, in order to keep the road base from eroding from under the road foundation, and to the beauty of the beach front, but it has added primarily to increase greater parking space for Bay St. Louis, which was greatly needed.

We note that this week the City grader is grading and packing the fill which is being used for parking, but we would like to make a further suggestion from a safety angle; that the same group who sponsored the improvement now see if a barrier can be placed along the edge of the fill, particularly at the head of intersecting streets, in order to keep an unsuspecting driver from driving over the bluff, or to keep a parked car from rolling overboard.

This is just a suggestion—but we think it worthwhile!

Bay High News

Bay High boys and girls basketball teams participated in the Sub-District Tournament in Perkinston last weekend. The boys were eliminated Friday night by Poplarville boys. Final score was 54-49.

Bay High girls received the second place trophy Saturday night by winning over Poplarville girls 44-27. Friday night and then losing a heart-breaker in the finals by one point. Perkinston girls were the victors by a 33-32 count.

Bay High girls will participate in the District Tourney this week-end.

The Junior Class under the direction of Miss Julia Blaize presented a "Variety Show" during assembly period on Thursday, February 9. The program was as follows:

1. "Queen For a Day"—Master of ceremonies, Gail Herbert; Contestants, Mrs. Minnie Feine, Norman Holden; Mrs. Dury Liberace, Wayne Alliston; Mrs. Cherry O'Puff, Fred DeHaan; Mrs. Lovey Dove, DeWitt Kennedy; Mrs. Ima Sucker, Henry Monti; Mrs. Heg Squeal, Ronald Johnson.

The Queen, elected by applause of the students, was Mrs. Lovey Dove. Prizes were given to the queen by the attendants, Carol Sue Banderet and Mario Breland.

2. A group of girls composed of Carol Johnson, Ruth Ladner, Sylvia Tamm, Gail Herbert, Mary Alice Holzman, Thelma LaFontaine, Carol Hobbs, Peggy Smith, Joyce Miller, Marjo Breland, Marguerite Randolph, and Janet Miller sang two songs: "Satisfied Mind" and "Teen-Age Prayer." They also played "Davy Crockett" on their combs. "Teen-Age Prayer" was dedicated to Donald Maurigi, Senior.

3. A guitar trio composed of Harold Boudages, Tommy Karl, and Norman Holden very amusingly sang "Moving On" and "You're Bound To Look Like a Monkey when you Grow Old."

They also pulled a couple of Vaudeville Acts. The entire program was dedicated to the Seniors of 1956.

The Bay High School Band had a busy Carnival season. They appeared in the Alla Parade on February 5, 1956, the Crela, on February 11, the Choctaw and the Midas on February 12, all West-Bank parades in New Orleans, and on February 14, the Chicapoulas.

The band had a great incentive to parade this year as they received new uniforms in the Bay High colors on February 2. The uniform consists of a bright medium blue whipcord jacket, trimmed in gold braid, blue visor cap, white pants and white shoes. The majorettes are in abbreviated costumes also in bright medium blue whipcord trimmed in gold braid and gold fringe. The drum major is in an all white uniform trimmed in blue sequins in musical symbols and gold buttons. One New Orleans radio announcer for the Alla Parade commented on the Bay High Band's striking appearance.

A Bay High Alumnae, and former trombonist with the Bay High Band, Wheeler Hartsfield, will appear with the Brass Choir from Pearl River Junior College which will be heard at the evening service of the First Methodist Church, Sunday, February 19, 1956, at 7:30 P. M.

The Eighth Grade presented the Vourt of Chicapoulas as the climax of Mardi Gras festivities at Bay High. Since Mardi Gras falls on Valentine Day, the Court was dressed in the Valentine colors of red and white. The decorations in the gymnasium also carried out the valentine theme.

The royal monarchs of the day were Gerald Favre, Jr., and Rose Ann Kingston. The maids were: Freda Pennicaro, Rose Mary Sautier, Elizabeth Rauxet, Sheila Dillman, Myra Faye Duke, Ann Morreale, Courtney Coward, Judy Poolson, Barbara Tartavouille, and Bobbie J. Walters. The dukes were Barry Stephens, Thomas Johnston, Earl Oliver, Melvin Burge, Kenneth Ladner, Bill Wats, Henry Steen, Floyd Christy, Sam Montgomery and Dennis Tartavouille.

The mistress of ceremonies or Krew Captain was Martha Allison. The busy ushers were Linda Sharp and Mary Ann Pahlman.

Others making up the court from the first and second grades were the junior maids to the court, Sheila Ann Favre and Sandra Jean Ladner; the junior maids to the queen, Kathleen Maloney; Train Bearers to the LETTERS To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor, Although trying to be both mother and father to a couple of slightly bewildering offspring from a wheel chair isn't exactly the easiest job in the world, I am wholeheartedly in accord with the editorial which appeared in the last issue of the ECHO and which I enjoyed so much. Perhaps SOME day parents may realize the tremendous responsibility they have to ward their "young," and it will be editorials such as yours that will help to awaken, or make them "aware."

New Gym At St. Joseph In Pass Christian

St. Joseph Catholic School of Pass Christian sports a new gymnasium, with finishing touches being given to the dressing rooms last week.

The $45,000 gymnasium is the first in the 86 year history of the school and is named for the parish, St. Paul's. It is brick construction with stands folded down from the wall. Seating capacity is 500.

The gymnasium is located just behind the school, which was founded in 1870. Miss Ann Logan, coach of the St. Joseph College, said that a Mother-Daughter game is being organized and will be scheduled some time next week.

St. Joseph's basketball season was closed when their Colleens were eliminated from the sub-district Eight B-BB tournament in Savannah.

9 Lettermen Back As Spring Training Starts at Bay High

Fifteen Bay High athletes received sparkling blue and gold jackets last Thursday morning and nine of the monogram winners will again be on the gridiron next season.

Tiger Coach Lance Lumpkin told the ECHO this week that Henry Monti, Wayne Alliston, Harold Bordages, Grady Perkins, Fred DeHaan, Tommy Carl, Marcel Anderson, Donald Byrd and Bill Hursey, all B-letter winners, will be returning to the sports picture next season.

"Twenty-four youngsters with a lot of desire" was the impression Coach Lumpkin received Monday when the Tigers had their first of twenty spring training workouts.

The Bay High griders open their season Sept. 6, the earliest in recent years, when they face their old rivals, the Pass Christian Pirates.

SJA Grammar Sextet Entered In Tournament

St. Joseph Academy's grammar school sextet, who last week won their own invitational basketball tournament, will enter the finals of a Catholic school tourney at Gulfport tomorrow night.

The tournament, sponsored by St. John School of Gulfport, will be played in the Gulfport Recreation Center.

St. Joseph Academy drew a bye to the finals.

Five schools are represented with Friday afternoon games scheduled between St. Alphonsus of Ocean Springs vs. St. John Boys, St. John lasses vs. St. Joseph of Pass Christian, and St. Joseph boys vs. Notre Dame of Biloxi.

The Rev. Thomas E. Williams, pastor of St. John Church, will make the trophy presentations Saturday night.

Initiation Held By Legion Aux

The American Legion Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting Feb. 6 at the Legion Home. Mrs. J. P. Compretta presided.

Plans were completed for a float to be entered in the local Mardi Gras Parade.

Several new members were initiated into the Auxiliary with Mrs. Claiborne Ladner as initiating officer.

New members include Mmes. G. Gayaut Jr., R. J. Reinike, A. R. Vetter, J. H. Benvenuti, Juanita Ward, Albert Biehl Sr., and F. H. Seeger.

Following this impressive service refreshments were served.

Liz Krieger Leads Grammar Jays To Tourney Win

Sparked by the outstanding performance of Elizabeth Krieger, the St. Joseph Academy Grammar School Gold Jays captured laurels in their own invitational basketball tournament held Saturday morning and afternoon in the SJA gymnasium.

In the finals of the grammar school tourney, the Gold Jays defeated St. Rose of New Orleans, 32-23, with the brilliant play of Miss Krieger earning her the team's outstanding player award.

Seven Catholic schools, all taught by Sisters of St. Joseph, were entered in the tournament.

Along with SJA, five schools from New Orleans and one from Baton Rouge participated.

Sister Louise Raphael, principal of St. Joseph Academy, presented members of the winning team silver basketballs, and awards were given to the outstanding player of each sextet. St. Plus X of New Orleans was awarded the Sportsmanship cup.

WEATHERMAN PULLS WEEKEND DOUBLECROSS ON COAST RESIDENTS

The Weatherman came in for some severe criticism last week-end when he turned on the cold after a taste of spring.

As early weekend temperatures soared into the eighties, many young people donned summer togs and headed for the beach, but they were forced to dash for shelter as the thermometer plummeted Sunday afternoon.

New N.O. TV Station Soon To Be Boon to Coast Listening Pleasure

New Orleans' third television station will begin operation between June and December and will broadcast on channel 8. It is said that the new station will be clearly received in Bay St. Louis.

The Federal Communications Commission granted the Greater New Orleans Education Television Foundation permission for the channel last week. The station will be an educational TV station.

The foundation, which has been campaigning four years for the rights to the channel, plans a $133,171 annual operating budget.

Musical Tone May Someday Replace The Old Familiar Telephone Jangle

Bell Telephone Laboratories reported yesterday on experiments with a new musical tone device which may someday replace the telephone bell if it meets technical standards and customers' approval.

The first major field trial of the new device will take place in the Crystal Lake, Ill. area next spring.

Limited field trials and laboratory tests already indicate some of the advantages of the musical tone. Reactions of a "jury" of men and women participating in laboratory tests showed that the musical tone can be heard at great distances.

It stands out above general room noise and can be distinguished from such sounds as the ringing of doorbells, alarm clocks and fire alarms. Still it was judged to be a distinctive and pleasant sound.

An advantage rated high by Bell scientists is that the new device is an aid to the partially deaf. This is because the musical tone contains more energy in the middle frequency range where there is ordinarily less loss of hearing acuity.

ST. STANISLAUS Notes

The following members of the St. Stanislaus band will attend the band clinic to be held at Pearl River Junior College this Friday and Saturday: Edward Dufresne, band captain; Edsel Aucoin, Charles Bishop, Hector Bourg, Jack Crais, Thomas Crooks, John Joyce and James Raymond.

Of this group, five placed first last year in the All Chic band. Brother Romuald, band director of St. Stanislaus, will accompany the boys to Poplarville.

Birthday Party Held For Sharon Chevis

Sharon Chevis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Chevis, celebrated her second birthday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chevis, on Bayou LaCrosse Road.

Ice cream, candy and cake were served to everyone. The cake was square, with white icing and pink decorations with Happy Birthday inscribed.

Those attending were Marilyn McDonald, Charles T. Sones, Burton Chevis, Billy Chevis, of Bay St. Louis; Carl, Billy and Debbie Chevis and Richard Thurman of New Orleans.

Parents present included Mrs. David McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Chevis Sr., Mrs. Pansy Thurman of New Orleans and Jack Chevis.

There were favors for everyone and Bert Chevis won a prize.

GRADUATES FROM COURSE

Army Pvt. James R. Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Carter, Route 1, Pass Christian, recently was graduated from a welding course at the Ordnance School, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

Carter, a former student at Pass Christian High School, entered the Army in September and received training at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

Attends Fashion Show at Mobile

With a flick of her golden wand, a fairy godmother whisked her medieval princess through the centuries into the spring of 1956, where, before the admiring and approving eyes of a score of department store executives, Her Majesty made her "Royal Choice" of fashions for the new year.

This magic excursion was the high point in the Olen Company's annual fashion luncheon held recently in Mobile with Mrs. Lucile Bourgeois of Bay St. Louis among Olen Department Store managers from six southern states.

Outstanding fashion details included elaborate bouffant petticoats, interchangeable flowers, scalloped, ruffled and frilly lace, and buttons in contrasting colors.

An attractive foreign influence was noted in the new Italian neckline. Also featured were the boat neckline, long torso styles and the Empire waist.

Shiyou-Wyatt Nuptial Vows Are Exchanged

The Church of the Annunciation at Kiln was the scene February 4 of the marriage of Miss Betty Marie Wyatt and Royce James Shiyou. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Wyatt, formerly of Greenville, S.C. and now of Kiln and Bay St. Louis. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Androcles Shiyou.

The Rev. Mark Ritten performed the ceremony.

Arrangements of white gladioli decorated the altar. Standing in the chancel were standards of white gladioli.

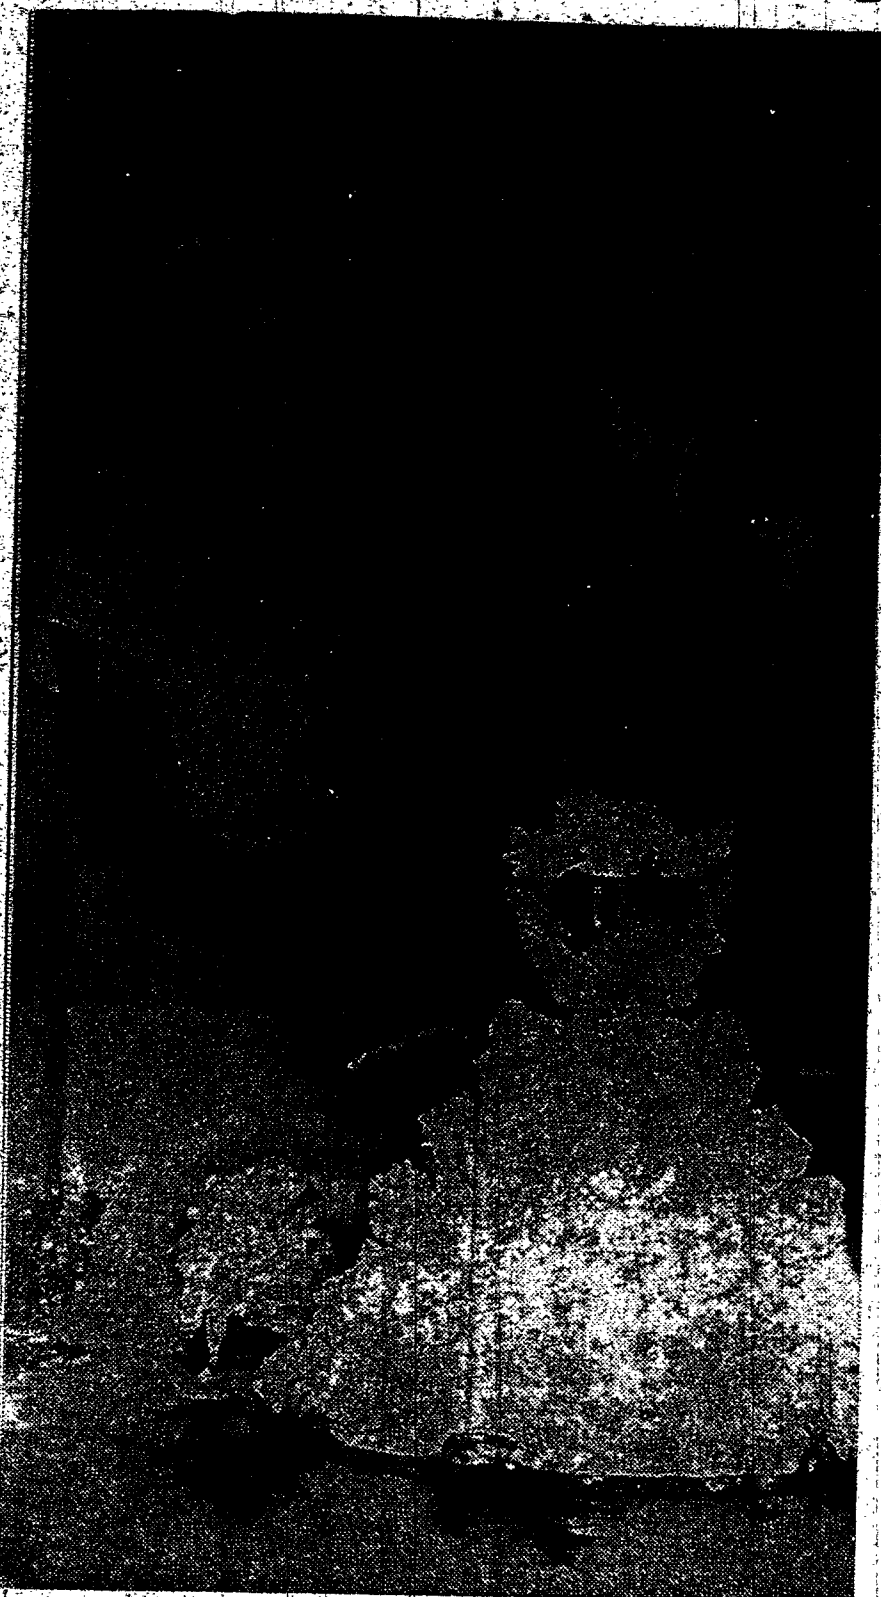

Mr. Wyatt gave his daughter in marriage.

Her gown was of taffeta combined with nylon tulle. The deeply squared neckline of the bodice was filled in with pleated tulle and lace. The very bouffant skirt was trimmed with many rows of the pleated tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a bandau. She carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. Eldo Depreo, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Virgie McLeod and Miss Doris Bennett. They wore pinto-length gowns made on lines similar to that of the bride's. Mrs. Depreo wore a dress of flesh taffeta, while Miss McLeod's was of blue and Miss Bennett's of pink. They carried bouquets of white carnations.

Clad in a dainty dress of pink net, little Sandra Maffray was flower girl. She carried a white ribbon basket from which she strewed rose petals before the bride. The ring bearer was Greg Depreo.

Laverne Cuevas was best man. Groomsmen were Slade, white gladioli and greens. White Ladner and Joseph Hoda. Ushers were J. W. Bilbo and Vern on Ladner.

A reception followed at the home of Mrs. V. A. McLeod, grandmother of the bride. The couple received in the living room before an arrangement of white carnations.

The bride's mother wore a dress of gold silk faille styled on simple lines. The groom's mother wore blue faille, and Mrs. McLeod a black moire suit. They all wore corsages of white carnations.

Throughout the home. The bride's mother wore a dress of gold silk faille styled on simple lines. The groom's mother wore blue faille, and Mrs. McLeod a black moire suit. They all wore corsages of white carnations.

Instead, general suggestions will be made by the Department, and each Post will be free to determine its specific method of taking part in this nation-wide child welfare observance.

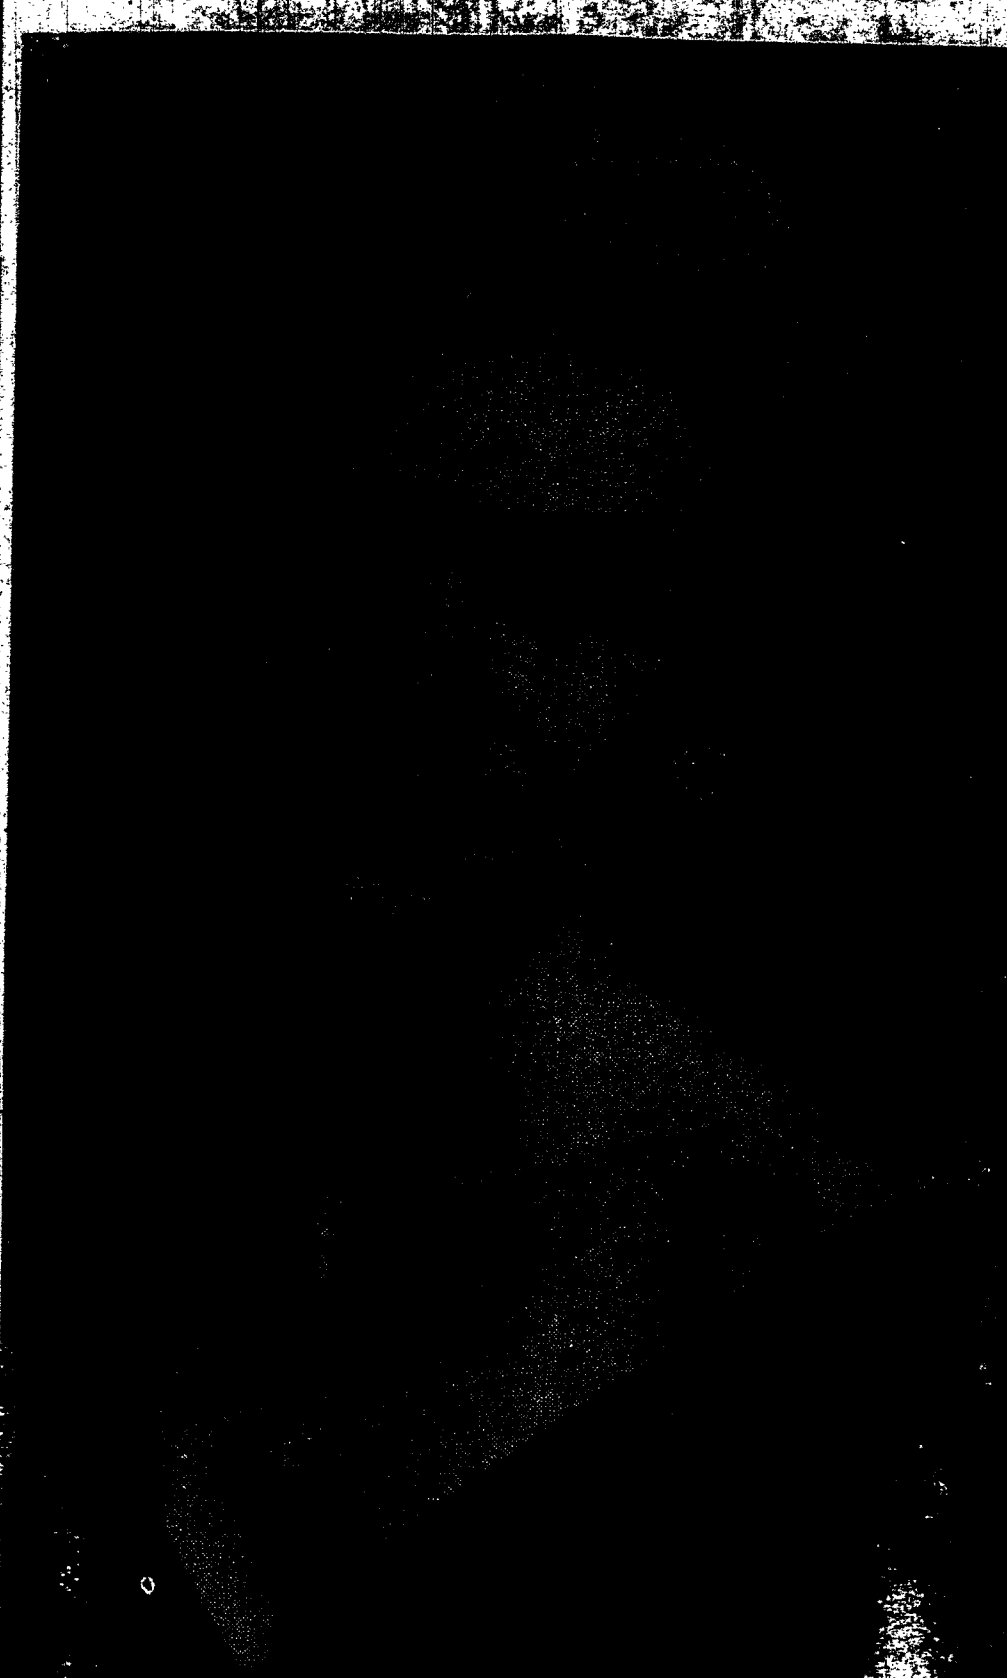

"American Legionnaires recognize that our Posts are an important part of every community. By sponsoring worthwhile projects and by cooperating with other organizations we can meet our responsibility of helping to make each community a better place for children," Dr. Ricks concluded.

Specific problems which have been recommended to Posts for attention during April include juvenile delinquency, mentally retarded children, mental health, promotion of the use of the Salk-Polio vaccine, religious or spiritual training of children, and scholarship opportunities for qualified youths.

Each of the state's posts is being asked to sponsor some special activity or project for or with children as part of the observance, he said.

During the past 30 years the American Legion, together with

Miss Betty Clair Rodgers Wedding To Take Place in N.O. on March 10

Mr. and Mrs. Vicko Pollanen announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Betty Clair Rodgers, New Orleans, La., to Martin Joseph Noto son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Noto, Bay St. Louis Miss.

The wedding will take place on March 10 at the Central Baptist Church New Orleans.

Mr. Noto will attend Mississippi Southern College in Hattiesburg.

MISS GLENDA ANN REED IS NAMED AS HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

Glenda Ann Reed, a Bay High senior, has been named Bay St. Louis' Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow through a competitive examination and has earned the honor of representing Bay High in statewide judging for $1,500 and $500 scholarships. It was announced yesterday by General Mills, sponsor of this home appreciation program.

Miss Reed also will be eligible to compete for a $5,000 national scholarship award to be made to the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

She demonstrated her home-making knowledge and attitude by receiving the highest score among Bay High students in a written examination which was given graduating seniors in 10,222 of the nation's public, private and parochial high schools.

Her test paper will be entered in competition with 177 school winners in Mississippi. A quarter million young women throughout the nation participated. Each state runner-up will receive a $500 scholarship.

Get ready for your baby chicks. Be ready when they are delivered.

Clean out, scrub, disinfect, air out, sun... this applies to house and equipment.

Put in clean litter. It should be 8 inches deep. Start up the brooder and check for needed repairs.

Start and regulate the brooder three days ahead of delivery of your chicks. Warm up the brooder house.

Have feed on flats or boxes, but the water in jars for it to be getting warm.

Make sure your chicks don't get chilled or overheated. A good temperature is 93 degrees to 95 degrees F. at the edge of the brooder; then drop the temperature 3 degrees to 5 degrees a week.

Do not allow drafts, but provide plenty of ventilation.

Begin getting range ready for pullets. Provide range for small flocks of hens.

For more information on care of baby chicks, see your local county agent.

FIRE PROTECTION

How's your fire defense? Here is a list of the minimum fire trucks and portable pumps.

Approved fire extinguishers placed near all hazardous locations, such as barns, machine sheds, and fuel storage tanks. Check and make sure that your fire extinguishers are of the approved type. Recharge as required.

Have enough garden hose and a filled water bucket for each 400 to 500 square feet of building.

Have ladders long enough to reach the highest part of the roof.

For field fires have back-type water pumps, brooms and sacks to wet down and use.

own as a cow.

Here are some pointers for more successfully raising replacement heifers:

Feed just enough grain to get desired growth, avoid excess flesh.

Feed the finest, softest, highest quality hay you can get. Feed several times a day. Mixed Johnson grass and legume hay, or Johnson grass hay cut when young and tender are preferable to alfalfa hay.

Do not let heifer calves have access to green grazing until six months old.

Protect from external and internal parasites.

On grade calves, dehorn when seven to 10 days old with electric dehorners or caustic potash.

Remove extra teats while young.

Revised estimates of employees who will receive more pay when the new $1 per hour minimum wage becomes law on March 1 indicate the number may run well above 25,000 production workers in Mississippi.

This statement was made today by Wallace S. MacNicholl, Investigation Supervisor of the US Labor Department's Wage and Hour Division here. He said the figures were based on November 1955 estimates just released, which show 130,000 wage and salary workers in Mississippi subject to the law's minimum rate provisions.

Latest US figures show that 28.2 per cent of the manufacturing employees in the South have straight-time earnings of less than $1. The 15-state Southern area leads the Nation in number of workers who will get raises. Other sections run from 1.8 per cent in the Far West to 8 per cent in the Northeast.

If the national percentage holds true in Mississippi, more than 12,000 factory workers will get increases from 75 cents and above to $1.00 per hour on March 1. Factory workers make up only half the covered group.

MacNicholl cautioned that not all workers are covered by the law. Of total US employment of about 65 million, there are only 24 million who get its minimum wage and overtime benefits. Many of those who are unprotected are not engaged in interstate commerce, while others are engaged in interstate commerce but are specially exempt by some provision. Among these are thousands of farm workers, those in retail and service trades, and a group of specified occupations.

Popcorn, Mrs. Leroy McFarland, chairman, Mrs. A. T. Butterworth and Mrs. H. R. Anisworth.

White Elephants, Mrs. Henry Osomach, chairman, Mrs. A. T. Montgomery, Mrs. D. Dilcox, Mrs. J. C. Pucheu.

Movies, Don McCulloch and Phil Allison.

Pony Rides, Mrs. Sidney Ball, chairman, Mrs. Don Chamberlain and Mrs. Milburn Boys.

Shooting Gallery Mrs. George Moring and Mrs. J. C. Foster.

Merry-go-round, Dr. and Mrs. Dan Romelli.

The festival will be held at the school April 28.

6 Denominations Represented At Day of Prayer

Men and women of six denominations answered the Call to Prayer last Friday when World Day of Prayer services were held at the Methodist Church under the sponsorship of the United Council of Church Women.

Opened with a prayer offered by the Rev. Schuyler Batson, the service was conducted by Mrs. David McDonald, assisted by Mrs. C. C. McDonald.

It was written by American Indian leaders from the Cook training school in Phoenix, Ariz., with the theme, "One Flock, one Shepherd" beautifully developed through the picturesque and expressive language of a people who live close to nature.

Particularly impressive was the Indian Version of the Shepherd's Psalm.

Music under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Goldman included congregational singing of well known missionary hymns and "The Ninety and Nine" beautifully sung by Mrs. A. M. Ellison Jr. and Mrs. Teddo Thomas.

The service concluded with the showing of a film strip entitled "While Earth Rolls Onward Into Light" depicting World Day of Prayer Services throughout the world and people and places helped by offering taken at these services. A commentary was by the Rev. Charles R. Johnson. The Rev. A. M. Ellison Jr. gave the benediction.

At a brief business meeting of the United Council of Church Women Preceding the Prayer Service, members voted unanimously to give all possible assistance to Walter Parr, regional head of the American Worean Foundation, in the loading of a Friendship for Korea to sail from Mobile in June laden with livestock, seed, farm tools, sewing kits and other goods designed to help the Korean people rehabilitate themselves and continue the fight against Communism.

It was announced that the May Fellowship Day service will be held at the Baptist Church at 10 a.m. on Friday, May 4. The Mission Study Night, with a review of John Kongland's book, "They Reach For Life" by the Rev. Schuyler Batson, will be held at the Methodist Church at 7:45 p.m. on Friday, March 2.

Scout Cookie Sales Stated To Start March 17

Bay St. Louis Neighborhood Association of the Girl Scouts met at Our Lady of the Gulf Girl Scout House on Tuesday, February 21, at 9 a.m.

Mrs. J. J. O'Neal, Cookie Chairman, announced that the cookie sale will begin on March 17 and end Mar. 31. A free picture show ticket will be given to the girl selling the most cookies in each troop. The girl who sells the most cookies in the Association will be able to attend Girl Scout Day Camp free of charge this year.

In conjunction with the cookie sale, Lyle Winkpleck, owner of the Dairy Queen, has offered to give a free treat to anyone buying a box of cookies from Girl Scouts at his establishment on March 17.

The American Festival which will be held April 13 in Gulfport was discussed, and it was agreed that all troops will participate as a group with folk dancing.

Mrs. Miller invited all leaders to hear Lady Baden-Powell speak in mobile March 13. Lady Baden-Powell is the founder of Girl Scouting in England.

Mrs. Pheobe Jones from Gulfport has been appointed Camp Director this year, and she spoke on plans for the Day Camp to be held in July. Mrs. Owen Jessup suggested that Scout leaders assist at Camp and take proper training.

Shadow graphs were illustrated by Mrs. Don Chamberlain, and Mrs. Brown demonstrated how to make a bunny corsage out of carnations.

All troops are expected to attend Church services in groups during Girl Scout Week. There will be a window display locally of crafts and equipment during Girl Scout Week.
